

Dear Pete –

Almost every day I wish we had Mom and Dad around. I am convinced that our parents were most unique individuals. I feel fortunate that some cassette tapes exist that captured phone conversations with Dad, mostly talking to us offspring. Thanks for having Dad sit down in July 1980 and go through his Last Wishes. Some of his remarks still make me laugh – I'm thinking you will enjoy hearing these as well.

Here is the outline by track of the conversations captured on the two CDs:
